

Attention: Primary Executives; Primary teachers; Teacher librarians

Civics and Citizenship Playing Your Part

A professional development course

Dates: Tuesday 31st March or Wednesday 1st July 2009

Schools are invited to nominate Stages 3 teachers to attend a course on teaching civics and citizenship education: Playing Your Part.

This course:

- is conducted by the Education Section of the Parliament of NSW.
- identifies the civics and citizenship education in the HSIE K – 6 Syllabus,
- demonstrates practical strategies for effective implementation of civics and citizenship education
- includes information and resources on the democratic process and our system of government, the NSW parliament, elections, active citizenship and community involvement and school and class parliaments.

Participants will have the opportunity to visit the parliamentary chambers and engage with resources to support civics and citizenship education.

When: Tuesday 31st March or Wednesday 1st July, 2009

9:00am to 3:00pm

Registration from 8:45am

Venue details will be confirmed closer to the workshop date.

Cost: There is no course fee for this course. Morning tea and lunch are provided. Schools will need to meet any teacher relief costs. Use of public transport is recommended as parking is not provided.

To attend these professional development days please book online at www.curriculumsupport.education.nsw.gov.au

For further information about course registration contact Usha Samuels on

(02) 9886 7499 or usha.samuels@det.nsw.edu.au

For further information about course content please contact Daniela Giorgi, Curriculum Adviser, Civics and Citizenship, DET on secondment as Parliamentary Education Officer on: (02) 9230 2334 or daniela.giorgi@parliament.nsw.gov.au